

DAY 1- Saturday 17th October 2009
LIVING SUSTAINABLY, ORGANISING CO-OPERATIVELY.

10.30- 11.30 am Opening session:

“Autonomous Futures and Direct Democracy” - Paul Chatterton, (Trapeze) talks about creative possibilities of direct action and autonomy for a sustainable future.

BREAK

WORKSHOPS 12- 2pm Choose between:

* Community Gardening– How to use urban space to green up our local ecologies, strengthen existing communities AND get local food! Featuring Eastside Roots and local permaculturists Ruth O'Brien and Mike Feingold.

*Economics v Ecology? - with Will Brown explaining the way the economy works. A discussion on the false choice between 'jobs vs environment'.

*Consensus Decision Making and Facilitation. A training of tools and methods to break down hierarchies and work effectively in groups. With Alice Cutler and Kim Bryan.
(Not drop in.)

2pm-3pm LUNCH

WORKSHOPS 3-5pm Choose between:

*Crash technologies in urban settings- Marvel at a grey water and water filtration systems. Create a floating Rubbish Islands, portable bio-remediation devices constructed from urban detritus. With Steve Stuffit.

*The Gift & the Commons - There are thousands of ways of producing, consuming and making decisions. The US anarchist/anthropologist David Graeber muses on human organisation and emerging social possibilities. (tbc)

* Creative ways of juicing the politics from apples: Food and Climate Chaos. participatory workshop with Natasha Machin.

5-6pm

Closing-feedback from all workshops and what next?