

Films will have facilitated discussions to ensure they are participatory and useful.
All Films will be in the Reading Room, Arnolfini, 16 Narrow Quay, Bristol BS1 4QA
www.arnolfini.org.uk
FREE

Thursday 22nd October at 18.15

'Rocking the Foundations' - film about the Aussie 'Green Bans' when the BLF builders union refused to build on the cities green areas claiming that they are a union that doesn't just build they are accountable to the wider community.

Thursday 5th November at 18.15

'Establishing a food forest the Permaculture Way' – an inspiring and practical film talking about the potential of permaculture forest gardening to design abundant human ecosystems.

Thursday 19th November at 18.15

'The Forest for the Trees' – Judi Bari and loggers. Earth first activist and IWW member who pioneered the recombination of red and green politics opening up new possibilities.