

Tools for Social Change

A Trapeze Short Course at Ragman's Lane Farm, Easter 2010

Sat 27th March- Sat 3rd April 2010

Drawing on the 'Do It Yourself Handbook' (handbookforchange.org) this week long course will provide training in grassroots organising, including consensus decision making, popular education and effective campaigning. It will also explore how these tools can be used to set up long term projects e.g. land projects, social centres, community gardens and how we can work together effectively to achieve social change.

Who: Trapeze is a popular education collective who have been organising interactive workshops which aim to inspire action since 2004.

To register please contact us before 27th January 2010 at www.trapeze.org

Cost: £175-350 pounds depending on income.

Location: Ragman's Lane Farm Forest of Dean, a sixty acre farm in Gloucestershire teaching people how to use land sustainably.
